Join a select gathering of key innovators and representatives from across the Wichita area and contribute to a national conversation on aging in place co-hosted by the Central Plains Area Agency on Aging, City of Wichita, Sedgwick County, and Visioneering Wichita.

The Wichita area was chosen to host one of a series of dynamic workshops highlighting the opportunity to improve livability for persons of all ages. Communities that are user-friendly for people of all ages, abilities and aspirations will have a competitive edge over other jurisdictions. Revitalizing Communities for All Generations will focus on making the Wichita Area a good place to grow up and grow old. In particular, participants will consider elements that contribute to the Wichita Visioneering process.

The workshop is free and includes lunch and information on obtaining a JumpStart grant ($1,000-$2,500) to keep the conversation going. Reservations are required and space is limited. Visit www.aginginplaceinitiative.org/Wichita to register and learn more.
